ASX RELEASE

21 January 2015

UPDATE ON FIRE AT NSW PREMISES

International water treatment and swimming pool equipment manufacturer and distributor Waterco Ltd (ASX: WAT) wishes to update that it is business as usual following the fire at its Sydney premises in Rydalmere on Wednesday 7 January 2015.

The fire was limited to the administration office. The damage is being assessed and repairs made. On the day following the fire, phone calls were diverted to Waterco's QLD office and with the support of an experienced team from NSW, sales and deliveries were handled from there for a few days.

As the Sydney warehouse was not damaged in the fire, Waterco now has access to it and began dispatching stock from there on Monday 12 January. The group's NSW sales and logistics team has recommenced full operations, and it has put systems in place to handle enquiries, stock receipt, sales and dispatches.

As of 21 January 2015, Waterco administration will be operating from Unit 6 and Unit 7, 2-8 South Street, Rydalmere until its premises has been rebuilt.

Based on the current preliminary assessment, Waterco believes there will be minimal impact on the results of the Group.
